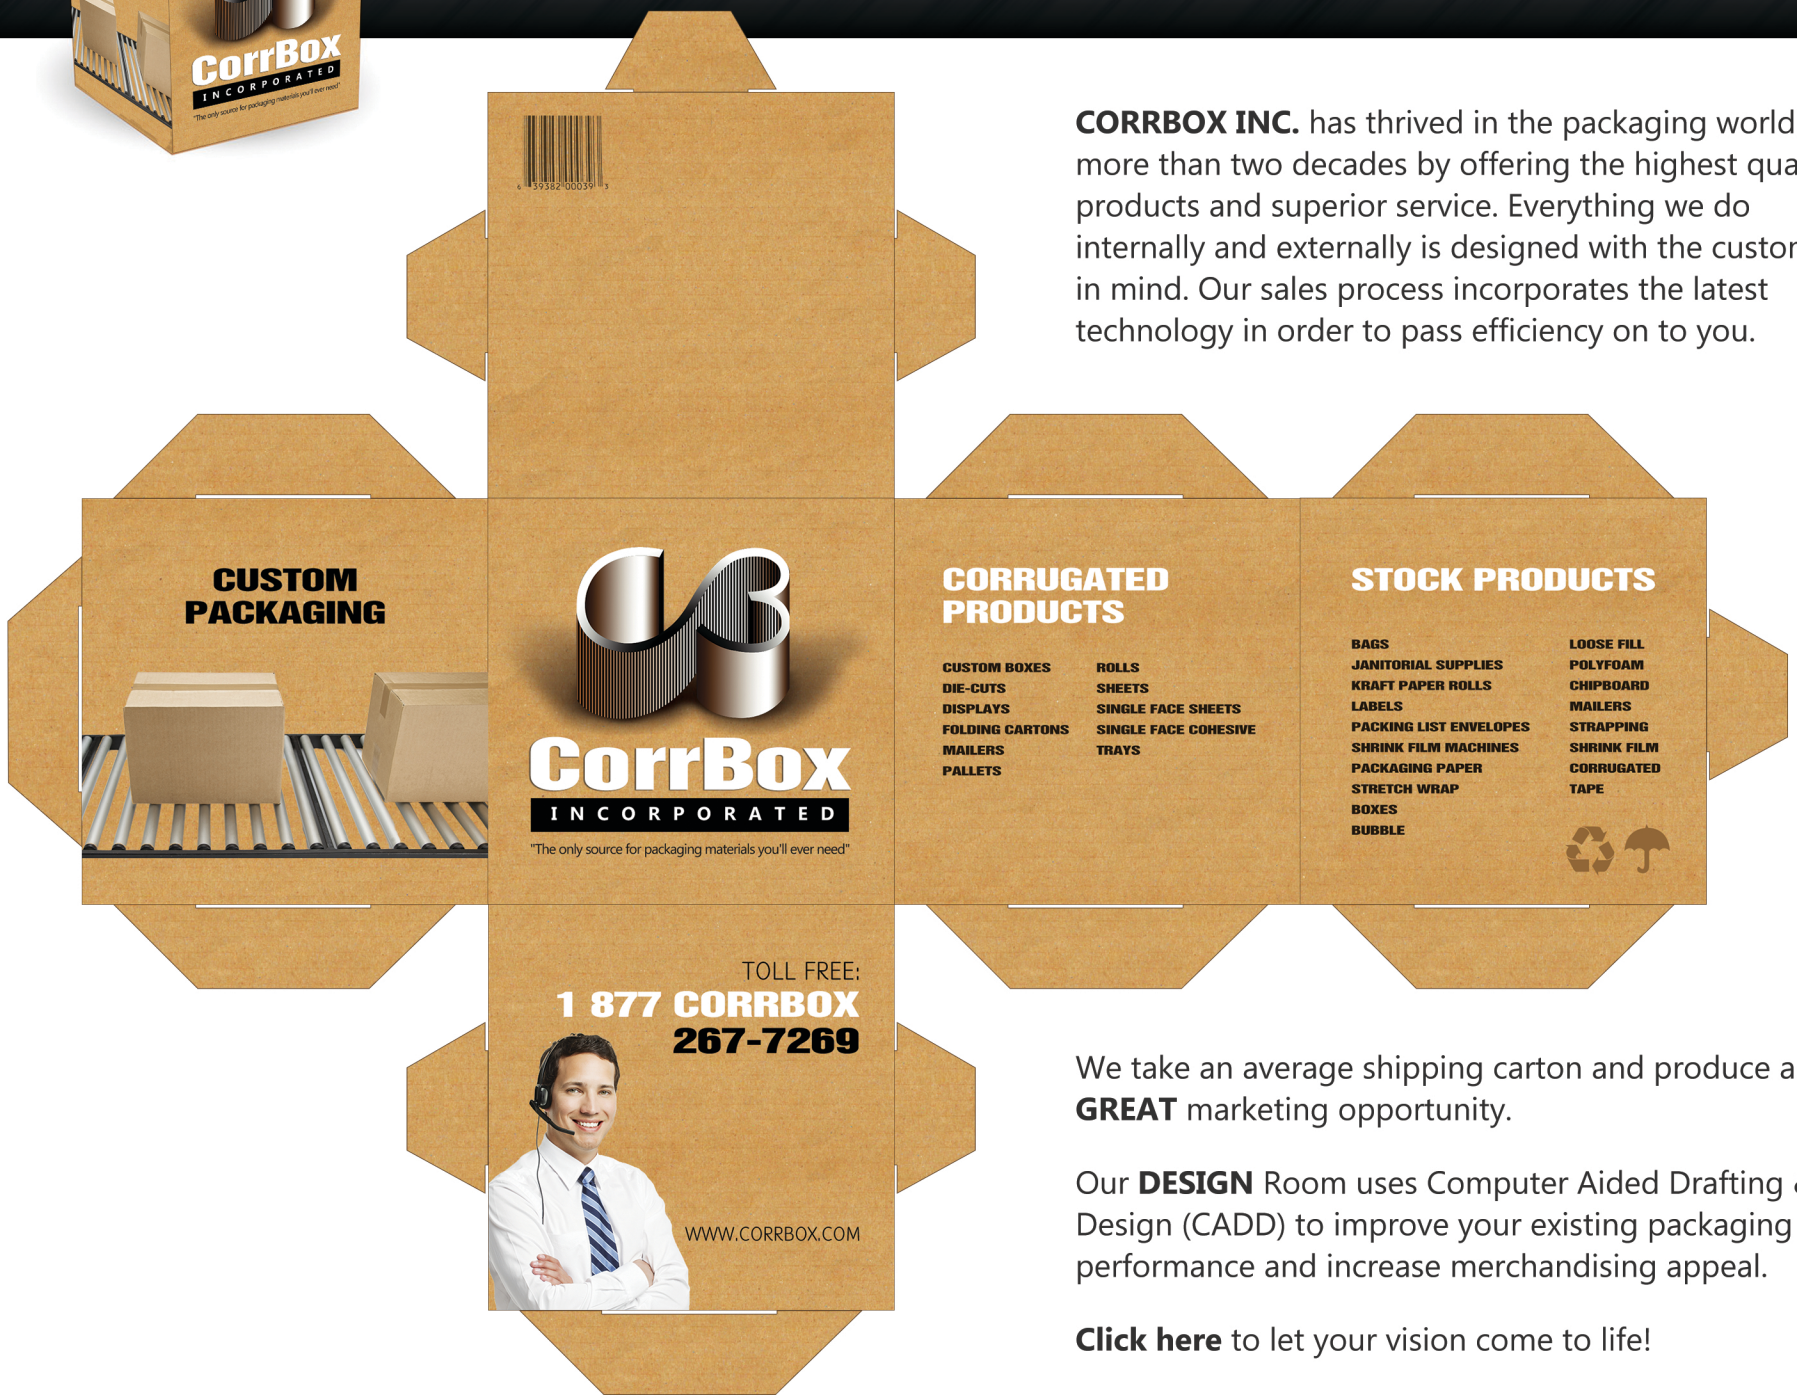
CORRBOX INC. has thrived in the packaging world for more than two decades by offering the highest quality products and superior service. Everything we do internally and externally is designed with the customer in mind. Our sales process incorporates the latest technology in order to pass efficiency on to you.



We take an average shipping carton and produce a GREAT marketing opportunity.

Our DESIGN Room uses Computer Aided Drafting & Design (CADD) to improve your existing packaging performance and increase merchandising appeal.
